Thursday Evening, October 30, 2008

An evening of food, fun, and entertainment in support of Diocese of Greensburg Catholic Charities

Latrobe, PA – Bi-annually, the "Taste the Good Life" benefit for charitable causes takes over DiSalvo's Station Restaurant in Latrobe in the form of an extravaganza hosted by Joseph DiSalvo. Mr. DiSalvo, 2008 President of the Pennsylvania Restaurant Association, looks at the “Taste the Good Life” events as “not only a way to serve the community, but as a way to bring awareness to the hard work and dedication of local non-profit service organizations”.

This fall, Diocese of Greensburg Catholic Charities will be the recipient of the generosity of the DiSalvo family and their equally generous patrons. The three-hour event, from 7:00 PM to 10:00 PM includes an open bar, gourmet food stations, live entertainment, a raffle, and a chance to enjoy some of the world’s best cigars in Joey D’s Sala da Fumo. DiSalvo’s Station Restaurant is located in the architecturally spectacular 1903 built Pennsylvania Railroad Station that is on the National Register of Historic Landmarks.
